we have all seen before the corrupt spread of development we heard the empty promises of its developers.
Obviously, the growing population has to be housed, but it also has to be serviced.
There should be not a brick of residential housing laid until after necessary infrastructure has been completed. If the developers are in earnest, then let them prove it.