The Building known as The Punch Bowl Inn, Longridge Road, Hurst Green, BB7 9QW	RVBC	2 March 2022	2 March 2022 By first class post	The Punch Bowl Inn is a Grade II Listed Building, which is an important heritage asset as it is an example of an authentic C18th and C19th building which evidences its past	4 April 2022

				uses, including domestic cottages, an inn and farming. Its historic value relates to the manner in which the building conveys a sense of lifestyles from C18th and C19th. It is also a local well known historic landmark prominent on the roadside. The building contributes to the historic character of the local area constructed out of local materials with vernacular elements which reflect the characteristics of other historic buildings in the locale. The Council is of the view that it is expedient to take enforcement action, having regard to the effects of the works on the character of the Building as one of special architectural and historic interest. The unauthorised demolition of the Building has led to the total loss of a designated heritage asset and is contrary to paragraphs 200 and 201 of the NPPF, Core Strategy Policy DM5 and Section 66 of the Planning (Listed Building and Conservation Areas) Act 1990

Due to this, along with the overall scale, the development results in an incongruous, unsympathetic and discordant form of development, failing to respond positively to the inherent character, pattern or scale of development in the immediate area and having a harmful impact on neighbouring residential amenity by virtue of being overbearing and causing loss of light and privacy. An external walkway / patio area has been constructed along the southern elevation of the development and steps have been constructed to facilitate access to the porch on the wester

Land at Cutlers Quarry, Four Acre Lane, Thornley (LCC Notice)	Lancashire County Council	22 nd March 2024	22 nd March 2024	The Council considers that there has been a breach of planning control on the land at Cutlers Quarry, Four Acre Lane, Thornley. The breach of planning control is the importation and deposit of waste.	The importation and deposit of waste on this land is taking place without the benefit of a planning permission and is therefore uncontrolled. The site is located within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and is accessed via a minor road where the uncontrolled operations are having an unacceptable impact on the visual amenities of the area, highway safety and the amenity of local residents contrary to the policies of the Development Plan.	Cease the importation and deposit of waste materials on the land.

Lyme House Farm, Longridge Road, Thornley, Longridge, Preston and Lime House Farm, Chipping Road, Thornley, Preston PR3 2TE	Lancashire County Council	31 st May 2024	31 st May 2024	The Council considers that there has been a breach of planning control on the land. The breach of planning control is the winning and working of minerals from Bluestone Quarry (herein after referred to as the Land) and their export off the Farm Unit. The Farm Unit is the land operated as an agricultural enterprise at Lyme House Farm, Longridge Road, Thornley, Preston PR3 2TE.	The winning and working of minerals from this Land and their export off the Farm Unit is taking place without the benefit of a planning permission and are therefore uncontrolled. The operations being undertaken are not reasonably necessary for the purposes of agriculture within the Farm Unit as the minerals are being exported from the Farm Unit and used in a development that is not related to agriculture.
