Dear Brian,

Thank you for your request for a balustrade quote and providing details of your project requirements.

Below on the left hand side of this page is a summary of the project with the quoted prices below on the right. The next page explains more about the system proposed with technical drawings of these parts. The last page explains the ordering process with a self-install overview We also explain how the goods will be delivered.

These are all bespoke made to measure solutions so we can change or tweak the design to meet your project needs.

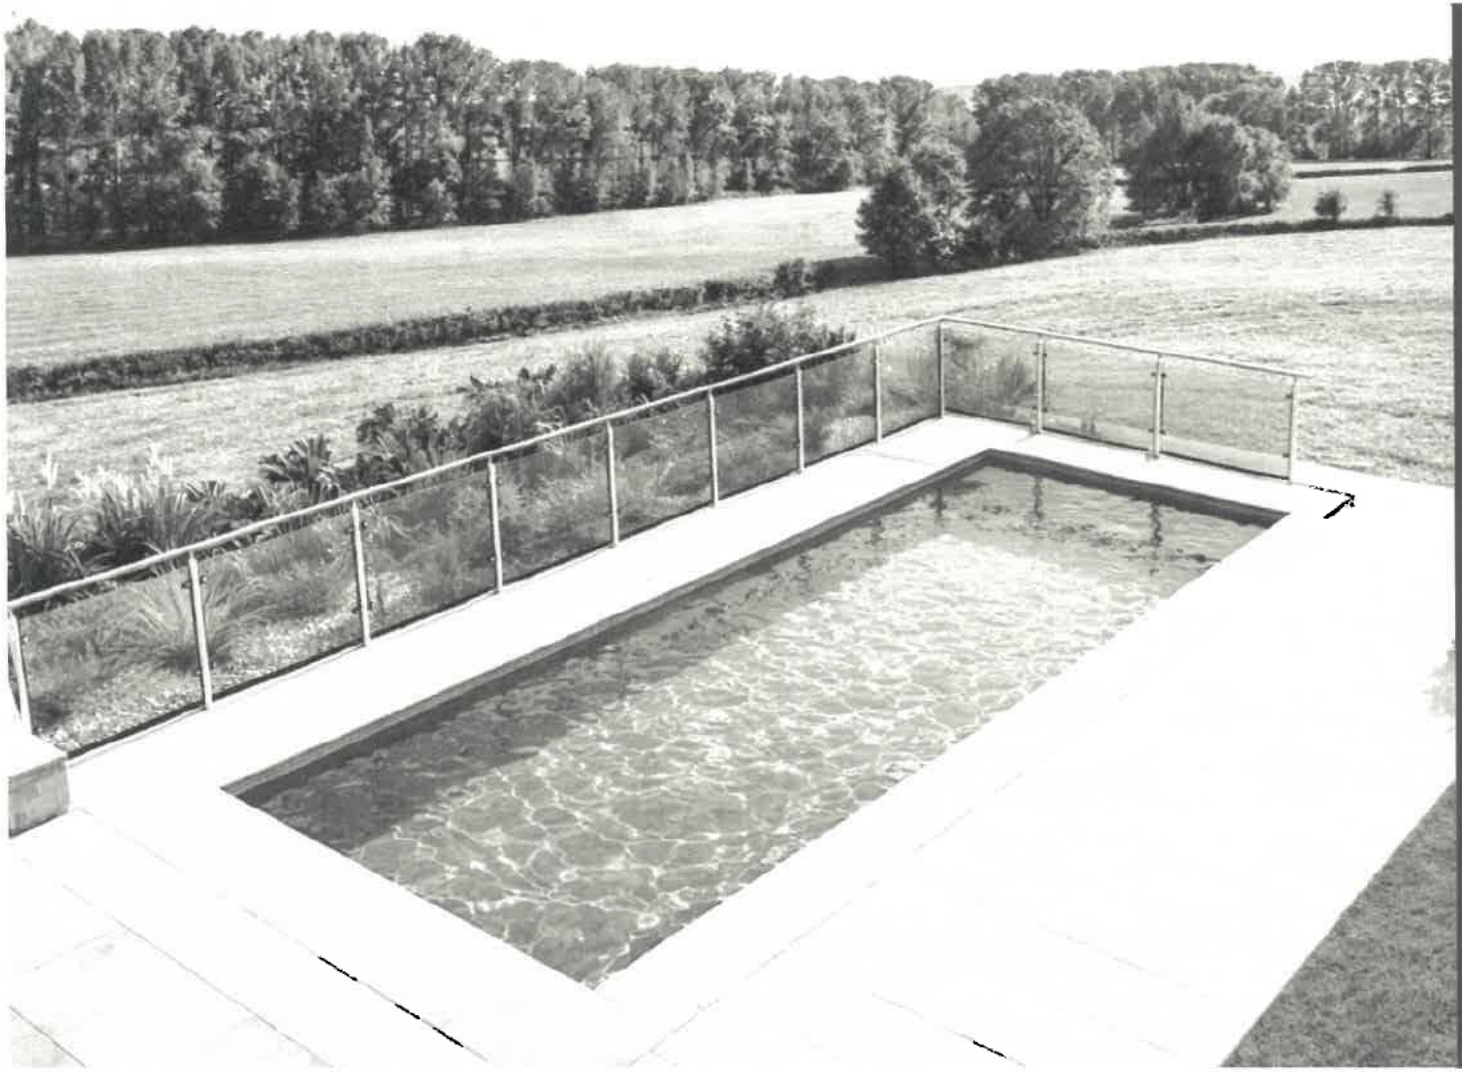

Kind regards
