This document is issued in accordance with the Scheme Rules of the mydeposits insurance-based tenancy deposit protection scheme. It should be read in conjunction with the Information for Tenants leaflet that should have already been given to you by your Agent/Landlord; if you have not been given a copy of this leaflet you can download it from the 'downloads' section of the Tenant's area of our website

The document is in two Parts.

This is the official confirmation that the deposit has been protected by a government-authorised tenancy deposit protection scheme. It also contains most, but not all, of the Prescribed Information about the protection of the deposit which the Landlord or Agent is required by law to make available to the Tenant.

Note: Part 1 does not satisfy the legal requirement for the Landlord/Agent to tell the Tenant what to do if at the end of the tenancy agreement the Landlord/Agent or Tenant cannot be contacted. Nor does it explain the circumstances in which the Landlord/Agent will retain part or all of the Deposit. This information will normally be included in the tenancy agreement. Finally there is a legal requirement for the Landlord/Agent to sign this document and try to obtain the Tenant's signature to it as well to confirm that all of the details printed hereon are correct.

The Tenant can use this form to notify the Scheme Administrators of a potential dispute about the return of their deposit at the end of the tenancy agreement.

IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS:

The Landlord/Agent Member of this Scheme is legally bound to pass a copy of the whole of the document to the Tenant, together with a copy of the mydeposits Scheme leaflet entitled 'Information for Tenants'. The Landlord/Agent Member of this Scheme must also sign Part I. The form also contains a signature box for the Tenant should they wish to exercise their right to sign and, thereby, confirm that the details printed hereon are correct. The Landlord /Agent must also pass a copy of this document to any other Relevant Party, namely any individual or organisation that has paid all or part of the Deposit on behalf of the Tenant.

ASSURED SHORTHOLD TENANCY AGREEMENT

for letting a residential dwelling

Important Notes for Tenants

- This tenancy agreement is a legal and binding contract and the Tenant is responsible for payment of the rent for the entire agreed term. The agreement may not be terminated early unless the agreement contains a break clause, or written permission is obtained from the Landlord.
- Where there is more than one tenant, all obligations, including those for rent and repairs can be enforced against all of the tenants jointly and against each individually. Where the tenancy is subject to deposit protection then joint tenants may have to nominate a lead tenant to act on their behalf with the Landlord or Tenancy Deposit Scheme provider or their alternative dispute resolution service provider.
- If you are unsure of your obligations under this agreement, then you are advised to take independent legal advice before signing.

General Notes

1. This tenancy agreement is for letting furnished or unfurnished residential accommodation on an assured shorthold tenancy within the provisions of the Housing Act 1988 as amended by Part III of the Housing Act 1996. As such, this is a legal document and should not be used without adequate knowledge of the law of landlord and tenant.
2. Prospective tenants should have an adequate opportunity to read and understand the tenancy agreement before signing in order for this agreement to be fully enforceable.
3. This agreement may be used for residential tenancies of three years or less. Agreements for tenancies of a longer duration should be drawn up by deed.
4. Section 11, Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 - these obligations require the Landlord to keep in repair the structure and exterior of the dwelling, and to keep in repair and proper working order the installations for the supply of water, gas and electricity and the installations in the Property for space heating and heating water.
5. Section 196 of the Law of Property Act 1925 provides that a notice shall be sufficiently served if sent by registered or recorded delivery post (if the letter is not returned undelivered) to the Tenant at the Property or the last known address of the Tenant or left addressed to the Tenant at the Property.
6. This agreement has been drawn up after consideration of the Office of Fair Trading's Guidance on Unfair Terms in Tenancy Agreements.
7. If you accept a tenancy deposit under this tenancy, it must be dealt with in accordance with the statutory rules under sections 212-215 of the Housing Act 2004, as amended by the Localism Act 2011. Take advice if necessary.
8. Where the tenancy becomes a periodic tenancy at the end of the fixed term period the tenant is required to give at least 28 days' notice (or one month in the case of a monthly tenancy) in writing to end the tenancy. The notice must end on the first or last day of a period of the tenancy in accordance with the common law rules. The landlord is required to give at least two months' notice in accordance with the statutory rules prescribed by Section 21 of the Housing Act 1988.
